THE PRISCILLA ART CLUB.

The weekly meeting of the Priscilla Art club was held at the residence of Mrs. M. Mason with Mrs. George Boswell as hostess. The usual needle work engaged the ladies for an hour. The business session was devoted to perfecting plans to receive the State President, Mrs. R. Ransom of Fort Worth, who was to be the guest of the Dallas clubs.

Mrs. Boswell served a delicious ice course served in aluminum molds and presented each lady with a dainty aluminum tea strainer as a souvenir of the occasion.

THE CITY FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Mrs. P. Hollier called the City Federated Clubs to meet at St. James Church last Saturday evening. The object of the meeting was to meet the State President, Mrs. R. A. Ransom of Fort Worth. The city clubs held a short business session before the State Meeting at which time the various clubs made their reports. From all the reports, the clubs have been able to do in the past and their hopes for the future. She assured the ladies that with cooperation of the many splendid women of our State we will be able to do many needed things for our people and place our State on a par with the rest of the world.

The next meeting will be held in Cleburne, Texas. Mrs. Ransom expressed a desire to have Dallas fittingly represented in her many phases of the club work.

Mrs. R. C. Lindsey accompanied the president and added to the pleasure of the meeting by a review of the work her city has been able to put over and assured the ladies of the future possibilities for the State work.

Representatives of ten clubs peddled Mrs. Ransom's interest in her work and promises to pass her message on to their clubs. A social was then indulged in and the ladies were served an ice course.

THE COLORED MOTHERS COUNSEL AND THE PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MET AT THE COLORED HIGH SCHOOL.

The Mothers Council and Parent-Teachers Association of Colored Women met in the Auditorium of the High School Thursday evening at 3 p. m.

Present at this meeting were: (white) Mrs. L. P. Smith, Mrs. Ed. Krelnaud, Mrs. Robert Sany, Mrs. Frenkel, Mrs. Aeguboth, and Mrs. Kirk Hall, all of the Board of Education, and were introduced by Mrs. B. Hall, all of whom made interesting talks covering wide scope of work being done under the auspices of the Mothers Council and offered to render whatever assistance that the Colored mothers may need to prosecute similar work among their people.

Quite a number of mothers and teachers representing the several schools were present. Principal C. Carr of the Colored High School, T. H. Brewster of the Wheatley Elementary School were present throughout the meeting.

The mothers have already shown the effort of securing kindergarten teachers and have so mentioned the School Board for the installation of the same.

The mothers are planning an elaborate banquet at the closing of the school to entertain the teachers at five o'clock Tuesday evening June 7th at the Wheatley School Park.

The Association will meet at Washington School next Thursday evening at 3 p. m., May 19.

MRS. Wm. A. ANDERSON, Pres. MRS. J. D. GLASPER-STEIN, Secretary. MRS. E. L. GORDAN, Cor. Sec.

CORSICANA DISTRICT CONFERENCE NOTES.

The Corsicana A. M. E. District Conference convened here last week with a large delegation of ministers and presiding elders. There were great services conducted by some of the ministers, and special mention will be made of Dr. E. E. Budanaro who preached the Educational sermon, Friday night, from Matt. 28:27, Subject: "Not Honor but Service."

This sermon was adjudged a masterpiece. He delivered a sermon at Wesley Chapel C. M. E. Church Sunday a. m., and at First Baptist Church in the afternoon.

Rev. Budanaro made a host of friends among the Corsicanites and every door is open to him to return. Long may he live.

NOTED EVANGELIST'S SECRETARY IN CITY.

Mr. Frank Johnson of Austin, Texas, private secretary to Mrs. Ida B. Johnson, the noted Evangelist and healer was in the city this week, arranging for the healers advertising campaign.

Mr. J. H. Steward, Sovereign Commander of Colored National Woodmen stopped off in Dallas, Wednesday en route to Terrell.

St. Paul M. E. church Sunday School was well attended and an interesting. The Epworth League is manifesting greater interest, and it is hoped to mount the highest pinnacle in Christian endeavor with the co-operation of the young people.

The pastor preached a wonderful sermon at the noon services, and at night the Rev. J. D. Rice preached a soul stirring sermon from the 27th Chapter of Ezekiel. This young minister is to be commended for his splendid ability.

THE READING CIRCLE.

The Reading Circle met May 9 with Mrs. E. A. Wilson, the president on Thomas Avenue. The club discussed the study subject, "Problems of the City" which was very interesting as to conditions in this and other large cities. A short business session was entered after the serving of refreshments by the hostess.

Mrs. Dollie Caldwell-Jones, a former member of the circle was with us on the 12th inst., the same was a pleasant surprise to her many friends in the circle. The circle was served a three-course luncheon during the social hour, followed by a short business session.

OLD DALLASITE RETURNS HOME.

Mr. Harvey, Newbill, formerly of Dallas, who has been for three years domiciled in the city of Detroit, has returned and is greeting his former friends and associates.

Mr. Newbill and wife for many years were staunch members of St. James A. M. E. church. They are now in full gratification at the new church and say that they will resume membership there.

AMERICAN REALTY AND CONSTRUCTION CO. HAS WELL APPOINTED OFFICE.

The floor space of the Little Gem Drug store has recently been re-appropriated so as to allow for the partitioning off of a large and nicely furnished office for the American Realty and Construction Company of which Price A. Wren is president.

This company organized about three years ago has recently increased its capitalization to $50,000 and purchased the splendid block upon First Street. The company plans to erect a modern office building at this place when financial conditions become more nearly normal.

"A Slave of Vanity," under the auspices of the Diamond Charity Club for the benefit of Day Nursery.

IDEWILD CLUB MEETS.

The Idewild Club held its regular Monday night meeting at the residence of Mr. Harold Hardin, corner of McCoy and Roseland Avenue.

A good attendance was recorded. The business of the evening concerned the next social function of the club scheduled for the near future.

Those present were refreshed with pimento sandwiches and iced tea, served by Mrs. Hardin.
